Reflection

A mere seven weeks ago thousand of new Church members were baptized. Their new life in Christ has once again infused new life into the Church. Their new found faith has inspired and bolstered the faith of those who have followed Christ for many years. As the Easter season nears it's end, we revisit the scene of our baptisms. In the second reading we hear Christ calling us; "Come...Let...the ones who want it receive the gift of life-giving water" (Revelation 22:17).

But our Baptism is not one of water only. John refers to washed robes, and we know that this washing is to be "in the blood of the Lamb." To make sure we get this message, we have today's first readings from Acts. It is the story of Stephen, the first Christian to be killed for his faith in Jesus. We remember the promise and also the cost of being a disciple of Christ. ~© J.S. Paluch Co.
